

Hurst Green Happenings

Spring Term no 73

26th May 2021

Where have the last 6 weeks gone?! Hopefully with the arrival of our half term, the sun may make a long awaited appearance!

It has been a jam packed half term and we have been delighted that we have been able to invite visitors to come and work with or perform for the children to enrich their learning.

We are aware there are a few upcoming events on our diary but at the moment, we are still restricted by Government Guidelines. As soon as we are able to, we will share more information on the format of these events. Please bear with us during this time. We are also continuing to ask parents to wear masks at drop off and pick up until the end of this school year and, likewise, will continue to ensure the children stick to their bubbles.

Inset Day A huge thank you to the parents who have brought in donations for our Nursery. We really do appreciate your generosity and the children are already enjoying their new activities.

Don't forget Friday is an INSET Day so children will be breaking up tomorrow.

Have a lovely half term,
Mrs George

Last week, we celebrated Eid. Thank you to Mrs Baydas, a parent in Reception who helped to provide our lovely decorations. Reception Class made some lovely biscuits to take home.

Request from Reception Class

Next term, our topic will be "What can you see in Summer"?

Do you have any small (children's size) bags, pull along suitcases, picnic baskets etc that you would be happy to donate for our role play corner?

Any donations can be brought to the main school entrance and given to the School Office.

Many thanks in advance

Mrs Fasoyiro

CHANGE TO PE DAYS

Next term, we will be welcoming Sports Elite into our school. They will be teaching our Year 1 and Year 2 children multi-skills.

Gymspire will be returning to teach gymnastics to our Reception class as the children enjoyed themselves so much this term.

PE will be on the following days:

Reception—Mondays

Year 1—Fridays

Year 2—Fridays (change to day)

Ready, Steady, Jump!

Our very own superhero Miss Ashton took part in a sponsored 160 foot bungee jump at the Olympic park in London to raise money for a local child who is undergoing treatment. We are SO proud of her overcoming her fears to do this amazing challenge. If you would like to show your support and help her reach her fundraising goal, please click on the link below.

24/7 mental health crisis line for children, young people, and families

A new 24/7 mental health crisis line for children, young people and their families and carers in Surrey has launched.

The free phone number - 0800 9154644 – is available for children and young people up to the age of 18, including those with Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND).

The new crisis line provides emotional wellbeing support, advice, and signposting to a range of community services for children, young people and their families and carers who are in a mental health crisis. The number is available to those who are already receiving mental health services, and also for those who are not. No referral is needed.

The crisis line is staffed by a team of experienced, trained call handlers and mental health nurses. A key aim of the crisis line is to help support young people, carers and families within their own homes and in the community and, whenever possible, help avoid the need for children and young people to go to hospital in a crisis.
